

JLP NEWSLETTER

REMINDERS!!

Furlough payments ended at the end of September. Make sure your Payroll has been adjusted back to full pay!

To ensure that we meet GDPR guidelines we would remind all employers to ensure that their employees password protect their E-Mailed Payslips. To update Staff can E-Mail: info@jlpayroll.co.uk with their personal password or call us for instructions

Remember, as an employer, if you paid SSP (Statutory Sick Pay) to staff that were absent from the office, before 30 Sept 2021, because of COMD you can claim back what you paid your employees from the Government.

Follow this link or email/call JLP for assistance:

If you are still uploading your Pension information to your workplace pension provider, remember JLP can do this on your behalf, taking another time-consuming process off your hands.

For more details, or to set this up just call the office

OTHER NEWS

We are helping a local Charity called Listen Threads, which inspires hope for young women by providing them with mentoring & life skills by teaching them practical skills & show them what's possible.

You could help too, by going to their website & making a purchase.
